A Buyer's Guide to Life Insurance and a Policy Summary are sent with all policies. You can get them without applying for insurance by writing to us. Coverage is dependent on answers to health questions. Issuing your policy and paying your benefits may depend on the answers given in the application. Florida law provides you with an opportunity to name a secondary addressee on your application. The Secondary Addressee and Address section on your application allows you to name another person for the purpose of notification of a past due premium payment and possible lapse of coverage. If the Insured dies by suicide within two years from the Issue Date, the only amount payable will be the premiums paid for the policy, less any debt against the policy. The following notice applies to applicants in the states of AZ, CA, CT, GA, IL, ME, MA, MN, MT, NJ, NV, NC, OH, OR, and VA: To approve your insurance and service your policy, we may collect or disclose information about you, as permitted by law, which may include certain disclosures made without your prior authorization. You have the right to access and correct personal information that we have about you. You may also receive a detailed notice on Gerber Life's Information Practices, upon request.

Benefit amounts are subject to Gerber Life insurance limits.
