

FREE INFORMATION ABOUT TAXING SOCIAL SECURITY

The Federal Government has enacted into law a provision in the tax code that allows the IRS to increase the taxable amount of Social Security Benefits. The law causes the taxable amount to be increased from 50% to 85% in certain situations! You should know more about this and how it can affect you.

The new consumer guide, “Strategies For Sheltering Your Assets” will give you hard facts and straight answers about protecting and efficiently managing your assets.

For your complimentary new guide and information on annuities and how you may be able to avoid the taxing of your Social Security Benefits, return this postage-paid card today.
